

Growing Old Behind Bars

Incarceration and Aging

Gerontology Professionals of Long Island

Tuesday, February 26, 6:30 PM

Host Site: Mills Pond Nursing & Rehabilitation Ctr.

273 Moriches Rd. St. James NY 11780 (631-862-8990)

Join us on Feb. 26, to explore this topic with the Suffolk County Sheriff, Errol D. Toulon, Jr. Ed.D. With more than 30 years in criminal justice, security and safety, Sheriff Toulon will share with us the recent creation of the innovative Aging POD, a living arrangement designed for inmates over 55 in Suffolk County.

Join the Conversation!

- ◆ Discover the issues confronting aging inmates and those who oversee their incarceration.
- ◆ Besides the Aging POD housing arrangement, learn what other programs have been designed to meet the special needs of an aging inmate population.
- ◆ Learn about transitional services and housing for those who are released, and what we can do to support the reintegration of this population back into our communities.

1 CEU available for $20, paid at the meeting. Family Service League is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work (0360) and Mental Health Counselors (MHC-0030). Otherwise there is no charge for this meeting.
